AMERICA
Samuel Francis Smith
1832

My Country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
    Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrims' pride,
From every mountain-side
    Let freedom ring.

My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,—
    Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
    My heart with rapture thrills
    Like that above.

Our fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
    To thee I sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
    Protect us by Thy might,
    Great God our King.

THE BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC
Julia Ward Howe
1866

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord:
He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword:
    His truth is marching on.
I have seen Him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps;
I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps.
    His day is marching on.

He has sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat;
He is sifting out the hearts of men before
    His judgment-seat:
Oh! be swift, my soul, to answer Him! be jubilant, my feet!
    Our God is marching on.
In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born
    across the sea,
With a glory in His bosom that transfigures
    you and me:
As He died to make men holy, let us die
    to make men free,
    While God is marching on.
